About Us

The Association of Government Accountants (AGA) supports the careers and professional development of government finance professionals working in federal, state and local governments as well as the private sector and academia. Founded in 1950, AGA has a long history of being the thought leader for the government accountability profession. Annually, AGA reaches thousands of Government Accounting professionals through education, research, publications, certification and conferences.

AGA NATIONAL PRESIDENT

Richard (Dick) Bunce Jr.

Dick serves as AGA National President and chair of the National Executive Committee. He previously served as AGA's National Treasurer, Chair of the Professional Certification Board and as a member of the National Finance and Budget Committee.

On May 20, Dick was appointed senior advisor to the President of very informative powerpoint presentation.

I extend a very special "Thank You" to our hard working Chapter Executive Committee (CEC) members who tirelessly work in the background to keep our organization operating smoothly. This year, the CEC has put together an exciting line-up of events with industry renown speakers and current events. We invite you to visit with us to network, learn best practices in government accounting and earn your professional CPEs.

Thank you, our membership, for allowing me to serve as President of our AGA Richmond Chapter this year. If you should ever have recommendations on how AGA Richmond can serve you better, please feel free to speak with me or any of your CEC members or send an email. We look forward to seeing you at the November 16th , breakfast event and especially at the Williamsburg PDC on December 1&2.
